Contract

between

Cross Lake First Nation ("CLFN"), acting as agent on behalf of Pimicikamak Cree Nation ("PCN"), and hereinafter referred to as the "Client"

and

Timothy J. Rudnicki of Minnesota, U.S., hereinafter referred to as "PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator" being the Parties herein.

The Parties agree as follows:

1. This Contract is in effect upon approval by the Trustees of Pimicikamak Okimawin Trust (the "Trustees") of funding pursuant to this contract, and remains in effect for one calendar year thereafter, subject to the amendment and cancellation clauses herein.
2. PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator will be engaged to perform services as described below.
3. PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator will provide a report to the Client, following each month in which he is engaged by the Client. This report will outline his hours of work for the Client in the previous month, the type of work undertaken and tasks completed in the previous month, tasks to be undertaken in the following month, and any areas of concern or otherwise. This report will include appropriate attachments such as news clips, program announcements, emails and other reports and correspondence. This report will also include any expenses, with appropriate records and receipts of such expenses, paid to PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator on account of work done on behalf of the Client in the previous month.
4. The services that PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator is engaged to perform pursuant to this contract, and subject to any change agreed to by the Parties, are as follows:
 - a. Enhance the visibility of PCN's concerns about its boreal environment, in Minnesota and Wisconsin and elsewhere as is required and feasible.
 - b. Provide timely and appropriate information about PCN and the issues with which it is concerned, to non-governmental organizations, politicians and elected officials, decision-makers, media, the academic community, and the public.

2002 FEB 19 11:10:00

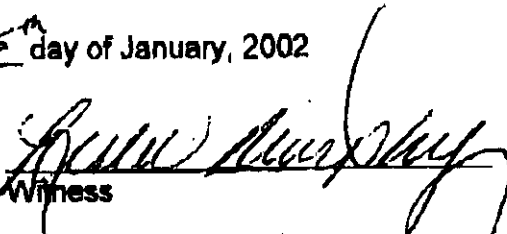

- c. Organize, schedule, and/or participate in appropriate advocacy activities, hearings, meetings, speaking engagements and media coverage and events.
 - d. Produce communications materials as required and facilitate their dissemination.
 - e. Assist with the development and implementation of the proposed "standards solution" and other PCN proposed solutions (including legal, political and editing input), and assist with negotiating with decision-makers to have the solutions accepted.
 - f. Assist with preparation of written submissions to regulatory agencies and government entities.
 - g. Assist as possible in the raising of funds to support these activities, especially reporting on opportunities for fund development for PCN's U.S. campaign.
 - h. File U.S. registrations and legal and other documentation as required.
5. The Client will pay to Timothy Rudnicki in Trust for PCN, one initial amount of $28,000 USD upon approval by the Trustees of funding pursuant to this contract, and three additional amounts of $24,000 USD each, due and payable by March 1, June 1, and September 1, 2002.
 6. The payments referred to in paragraph 5 above allow for $80,000 USD for consultant fees (that is a flat fee of $6666 USD per month), and $20,000 USD for expenses.
 7. PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator will invoice the Client at or after the end of every half calendar month to which the herein contract applies, for $6666 USD in consultant fees, plus expenses, for work performed on behalf of the Client in the previous month. The expenses must be itemized, and must be equal to or less than the expense amount stipulated in paragraph 6 above, as allotted in paragraph 5 above. If these conditions are met, PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator may draw the invoice amount from the funds held in trust for PCN pursuant this contract.
 8. Either party may cancel this contract with 30 days written notice. In the event of cancellation, work performed by PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator under this contract up to the date on which cancellation takes effect, will be invoiced pro-rata at the consultant fee rate referred to in paragraph 6 above and, together with invoiced expenses, will be drawn from the retainer held in the account of Timothy Rudnicki in Trust for PCN.
 9. In the event of cancellation, or at the end of the term of this contract, it is understood that PCN's U.S. Campaign Co-ordinator will pay to Pimickamak Okimawin Trust any amount remaining in Trust for PCN after paying all fees and expenses for his work pursuant to this contract.

- 10. The Parties may agree in writing to amend this contract.
- 11. The Parties may agree in writing to extend or renew this contract.
- 12. This contract is governed by the laws of Manitoba.
