the Group to the Government.

5. Report. The Group will provide the Government with a written monthly status report concerning the services provided in the previous month and to be provided in the following month, as described herein.

6. Privileged Information. The Group, understanding the sensitive nature of the services to be provided under this Agreement, will make every effort to protect and keep secret all privileged communications and other confidential information developed by the Group or provided to the Group by the Government during the course of the Group's provision of services described herein. The Group shall neither make nor keep more copies than necessary of materials relating to its services for the Government. The Group also agrees to keep files relating to its services for the Government under lock and key. At the Government's request, the Group shall destroy, whether by cross-shredding and/or burning certain documents identified by the Government in the possession of the Group.

7. Subcontractors. The Group may employ at its discretion subcontractors to assist in providing the services described herein.

8. Legal Compliance. The Group and any subcontractor of the Group shall separately and individually comply with all applicable U.S. laws and regulations. In particular, it shall comply with Title 22, Chapter 11 of the United States Code pertaining to Foreign Agents and Propaganda.

9. Conflicts. The Government understands that the Group provides services to many commercial entities that are engaged in international business and trade activities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary within this Agreement, the Group, in the exercise of its sole discretion, may represent any commercial entity in doing business with the Government. However, the Group shall notify the Government of any potential conflicts of interest between its representation of the Government and any other party and any possible remedial measures that can be taken to remove the conflict[s]. Once notified, the Government shall, in its sole discretion, determine whether a material conflict exists and whether remedial measures proposed are sufficient.

10. Representations and Warranties.

a. The Government hereby represents and warrants that the undersigned has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of the Government and to carry out the obligations contemplated herein. This Agreement, when executed by the undersigned on behalf of the Government, will constitute a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Government enforceable against the Government in accordance with its terms.

b. The Group hereby represents and warrants that the undersigned has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of the Group and to carry out the obligations contemplated herein. This Agreement, when executed by the undersigned on behalf of the Group, will constitute a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Group enforceable against the Group in accordance with its terms.

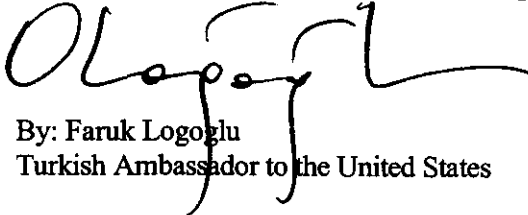

c. The Group hereby represents and warrants that it is an independent contractor and not an employee of the Government. As such, has no authority to bind the Government in any manner whatsoever, absent the express written consent of the Government.

10. Choice of Law, Jurisdiction, Forum, Language. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Republic of Turkey. Should any dispute arise regarding this Agreement, including but not limited to, the interpretation of its terms, it shall be settled in good faith negotiation by the parties. Should negotiations fail, then the Turkish Republic Courts in Ankara Turkey shall be the sole jurisdiction and venue for resolving disputes relating to this Agreement. Though the English language version of this Agreement shall govern, the Group understands and agrees that all dispute resolution contemplated in this section may, at the Government's sole discretion, be conducted in the Turkish language.

11. Indemnity. The Group shall be solely responsible for the acts of its employees and/or agents and shall defend and hold the Government harmless from and indemnify it for any claims which arise from such acts.

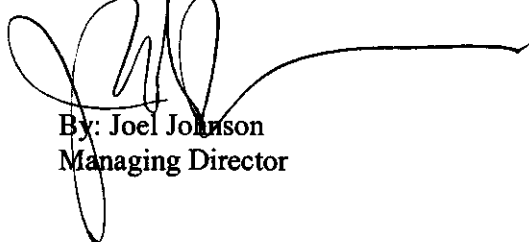

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and delivered as of the day and year first written above, in two (2) original copies in the English language.
