Re: Terms of Engagement

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

We at Alston & Bird (the "Firm"), are pleased that the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States ("TECRO") has chosen to continue its relationship with us. The purpose of this letter is to confirm the terms of our overall engagement.

This engagement is effective January 1, 2017, and will continue in effect until December 31, 2017, unless otherwise agreed by the Firm and TECRO. During our engagement, you agree to pay the Firm a monthly retainer of $25,000.00. Throughout the period of this engagement, we will issue monthly statements for our services rendered in the previous month, payment due upon receipt. The Firm will not bill TECRO separately for incidental expenses, except for mutually agreed travel.

During the period of the retainer, the Firm will provide TECRO a monthly report of all activities undertaken on your behalf. I will actively participate in and supervise our day-to-day work under this agreement. All work will be coordinated from my office. Our team will include members of my immediate staff, and, on an as-needed basis, other lawyers in the Firm and their assistants who have particular expertise in the issues under consideration. In addition, I will meet with you on a regular basis. My representatives will meet regularly with TECRO representatives and coordinate with them by telephone as frequently as necessary. The management and supervision of the engagement shall be under my direct control and supervision, and no activity relating to TECRO shall be generated without my or my representatives' explicit direction and approval.

This year, we agree that our activities will continue to focus on assisting you with your agenda as it relates to the U.S. Administration and Congress. TECRO and the Firm will agree on a work plan to cover these activities. In addition, the following activities are among those we are prepared to undertake on TECRO's behalf:

- Work with you to advance Taiwan's goals of entering into a bilateral investment agreement with the United States, as well as Taiwan's military goals;
- Promote travel to Taiwan by and seek meetings with U.S. Administration officials, Members of Congress, and other prominent Americans;
- Assist in scheduling meetings with Republican Party officials, involvement in 2017 Presidential Inauguration activities, and in advancing your agenda on other party-related issues;
- Assist in scheduling meetings with and promoting Taiwan's issues with Republican and Democratic members of the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives, including those in leadership positions;
- Assist in drafting and finding appropriate opportunities for op-eds, press releases, speeches, and other statements;
- Provide analysis of U.S. political developments; and
- Through close coordination with your staff, we are also prepared to undertake other special assignments on your behalf, provided that they are mutually agreed to by both parties.

We are also prepared to provide additional legal services, beyond the scope of the abovementioned retainer, at your request. If you request such services, we will provide, on an as-needed basis, other lawyers in the Firm and their assistants who have particular expertise in the issues under consideration. You would be billed for these services, separately from and in addition to the $25,000.00 monthly retainer, based on the hourly rates of the relevant lawyers.

As you can appreciate, the attorney-client privilege is an important subject that we raise with our clients at the outset of any new representation. As a matter of professional responsibility, we are required to preserve the confidences of our clients, and this professional obligation and the legal privilege accorded attorney-client communication exist to encourage candid and complete communication between client and attorney. The attorney-client privilege, however, can be lost if our written or oral communications are shared inappropriately with others, including, under certain circumstances, other employees or representatives of TECRO. We should always, therefore, discuss in advance any intention on the part of TECRO to include others in our confidential relationship.

Moreover, as in any professional relationship where mutual trust and confidence are essential, it is appropriate for either TECRO or Alston & Bird to be able to terminate our engagement at any time, by reasonable written notice. If our engagement is terminated, we understand that TECRO will take whatever steps are necessary to evidence that we are free from any obligation to perform further, and to pay us for unpaid fees, charges for related expenses, and services incurred to the date of termination. For clients who are not regular, general clients of the firm, but who hire us as special counsel for a limited engagement, an additional condition of our acceptance of this engagement is an agreement that our acceptance of this limited engagement shall not preclude our firm from representing other clients in the future who may have adverse interests with respect to matters unrelated to this limited engagement. We consider our representation of TECRO to fall into this category.

Notwithstanding the above, Ted Schroeder and I, as well as any other Firm professionals who engage in representing TECRO, agree not to represent the government of the People's Republic of China (PRC), that is, the state itself, or any subdivision or agency or instrumentality thereof, as those terms are defined in 28 U.S.C. 1603 (a) and (b) during the course of our representation of TECRO.

We would appreciate your acknowledging, on behalf of TECRO, that this letter correctly reflects the terms of our engagement by signing, dating, and returning to me the enclosed copy of this letter. There is space for your acknowledgement below my signature.

Again, we are delighted that Alston & Bird will be representing TECRO for the purposes described herein, and we thank you for continuing our relationship. We look forward with enthusiasm and appreciation to working with you again in 2017. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 202-654-4848 or Ted Schroeder at 202-239-3447.
