ATTACHMENT A, SECTION III, #11

We advised the Embassy of the Republic of Uzbekistan with respect to its relationship with the U.S. Government, western media, private sector companies, international financial institutions and non-government organizations and strategies for attraction of foreign investment. This included recommendations on communications between the Republic of Uzbekistan and members of Administration, members of Congress, congressional staff, the media, business and NGO executives. The principal activity during this period was preparation of 12-page Uzbekistan Report published by the Washington Times International Reports Advertising Section. The report is also posted on the Washington Times International Reports website http://www.internationalreports.net/asiapacific/uzbekistan/2004/index.html

We provided advice on outreach to government and business leaders, disseminating information about economic reforms and investment opportunities, legal research to develop strategies for improvement of legal and taxation climate in Uzbekistan, methods for responding to negative articles about the country and media training. We also assisted the Government of Uzbekistan with dissemination of information on trade and investment opportunities and outreach to private sector companies, financial institutions and the media in Great Britain and the Russian Federation.

ATTACHMENT B, SECTION III, #12

To attract foreign investment and develop economic cooperation with Uzbekistan, we attended meetings and had telephone conversations with government officials, Congressional staffers, private sector executives, and representatives from international financial institutions, NGOs and the media.

Primary focus of all communications was to form better understanding of bilateral issues of interest. We also discussed Uzbekistan political and economic climate and a need to develop US-Uzbekistan economic, educational and cultural cooperation. No specific bills, resolutions, treaties or agency actions were discussed. Although our representation does not extend to the following subjects, in some meetings we were asked questions about human rights, freedom of the press, child custody, and Uzbekistan-Russian relations. The information on dates and individuals with whom we met or had telephone conversations is attached below.
