Industrias Molineras, S.A. (IMSA)
Km. 13 Carretera a Puerto Cortés
San Pedro Sula
Honduras, C.A.

Dear Mr. Abufele:

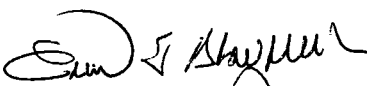

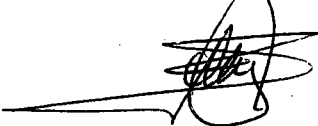

This letter confirms the terms upon which Tew Cardenas LLP (the "Firm") will represent your father, Emin Jorge Abufele Salomón (the "Client").

The Firm will provide strategic counsel to the Client in regard to seeking approval of a non-immigrant visa application for the Client and facilitating his admission into the United States.

The Firm's team advocating your case will consist of Alberto Cardenas and Ambassador Roger Noriega. Within the scope of this agreement, the Firm will engage the services of Mr. James Gagel, attorney at law, to provide expertise on U.S. immigration law. The Firm's services may include advocating the Client's interests before representatives of the U.S. government, including discussions with the U.S. Department of State in Washington, DC, the U.S. Embassy in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

The Firm will carry out these functions in the following stages:

Stage One: The Firm will perform essential due diligence to determine whether or not an application by the Client for a non-immigrant visa would be favorably received by U.S. officials in light of any information in the files of U.S. consular and immigration authorities. If there are no issues affecting the Client, the Firm, in cooperation with Mr. Gagel, will assist the Client in preparing and submitting an application for a non-immigrant visa. If there are found to be asserted grounds of inadmissibility against the Client, the Firm will seek to determine the specific grounds with the aim of responding to these issues.

Stage Two: The Firm will prepare, in close consultation with the Client, a presentation addressing any purported grounds of inadmissibility, and, if necessary, advocating for any required waivers of the grounds of inadmissibility.

Stage Three: The Firm's representatives and Mr. Gagel will accompany the Client to meet with U.S. officials to make the presentation described above and, as appropriate, present the application for a non-immigrant visa.

Stage Four: Upon issuance of a non-immigrant visa to the Client, the Firm will monitor and ensure the proper admission of the Client to the United States. Monitoring of the Client's case will include representing the Client if issues arise while the Client seeks admission in to the United States. These services will also include advocacy before the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of State if issues arise when the Client seeks to physically enter the United States under the newly issued visa.

The Client understands that, while partners of the firm have developed positive professional relationships with government officials, there can be no guarantee that decisions of the governmental agency will be favorable to the Client. The Client further acknowledges that there have been no representations that the Firm or its partners can exert any undue or improper influence over any governmental agency or official.

In consideration of these services, the Client agrees to pay increments of $25,000 upon the commencement of Stage One as outlined above and upon commencement of each of the following stages. (The cost of Mr. Gagel's legal services will be covered under this fee.) It is understood that if Stage One should produce a nonimmigrant visa or waiver without additional advocacy on the part of the Firm, then only one additional payment, i.e. for services described as Stage Four, will be required. The initial payment will be due upon execution of this agreement. The Client also agrees to pay any expenses, including but not limited to travel and lodging outside of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. The Firm will seek prior approval from the Client of any individual expenditure exceeding $2,000.00.

All payments may be wired to:

Because the Firm is a substantial size and has more than one office, the Firm may be asked to represent someone whose interests may be adverse to the Client's interests. The Firm is accepting this engagement on the understanding that our representation of the Client will not preclude the Firm from accepting any other engagement from any existing or new client. The Client consents to the Firm representing another client if such representation is adverse to the interests of the Client provided that (i) the representation will not adversely affect the Firm's responsibilities to and relationship with the Client, and the other client, (ii) such engagement is not substantially related to the subject matter of any services we are providing to the Client, and (iii) in accepting such other engagement we would not impair the confidentiality of proprietary, sensitive or otherwise confidential communications the Client has made to us.

The Client agrees and understands that this retainer agreement represents the entire agreement between the Client and the Firm with regard to the Firm's representation of the Client. If the Client desires to retain the Firm for representation in matters other than those described above, the firm and the Client must reach an additional agreement regarding such new representation.

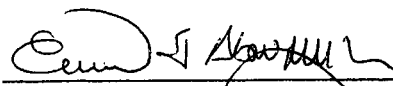

Please indicate your acceptance of the foregoing agreement for your employment of the Firm by signing and dating the enclosed copy of this letter where indicated below and returning the signed and dated copy of this letter to me, accompanied by a payment of the initial $25,000. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. I look forward to a positive and successful working relationship.

Sincerely,

Alberto Cardenas
