

This email communication was distributed to reporters.

Hi there,

I hope this note finds you well! I wanted to follow up on the email I sent yesterday about the exclusive events in Bahrain this past weekend, which brought together Hollywood A-listers like Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, and Simu Liu, alongside members of Bahrain's Royal Family and global industry leaders.

Highlighting the Kingdom's growing influence as a hub for global culture and entertainment, the group participated in various tourism and cultural adventures culminating in an intimate gathering at Cipriani Bahrain, attended by influential leaders from film, fashion, and the arts.

Would love to hear your thoughts on this story and whether it might be a fit for coverage. Please let me know if you'd like additional details. The photos (credited to Getty Images/David Jon) can be found here.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Best,
Scott

Scott Peltomaa
FGS Global | Associate Director | Los Angeles

Date: Tuesday, May 27, 2025 at 10:51 AM

Subject: Bahrain: A Rising Star in Global Tourism and Culture

Hi there,

This weekend a host of high-profile Hollywood celebrities, including Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu, and others joined members of Bahrain's Royal Family at an exclusive event celebrating the Kingdom of Bahrain's growing influence as a global hub for entertainment, media, sports, and culture.

The event was held at Cipriani Bahrain and was attended by members of the Bahrain Royal Family, as well as filmmakers, business leaders, and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe.

The guests also participated in many of the tourism and cultural experiences the island has to offer, including a track experience at the Bahrain International Circuit, home to Formula 1's Bahrain Grand Prix; a golf experience at the Royal Golf Club; dining at Sumosan located at the exclusive Address Beach Resort; and tours of significant cultural sites such as the Bahrain Fort and Pearling Path.

The Kingdom continues to go from strength-to-strength as a hub for business investment, technological innovation, elite-level global sport and the creative industries heightening the island nation's reputation as a destination for cultural tourism and sporting experiences. Home to multiple UNESCO World Heritage Sites as well as state-of-the-art performing arts centres, and a thriving creative ecosystem, Bahrain is well-known for celebrating craftsmanship, storytelling and the preservation of its cultural heritage.

Access Photos Here

Credit: Getty Images/David Jon

Best,

Scott

--

The world of entertainment converges to celebrate Bahrain's growing prominence as a global center for tourism experiences and media

Manama, Bahrain – 27 May 2025: Hollywood stars and influential personalities gathered at Cipriani Bahrain to celebrate the Kingdom of Bahrain's growing influence as a global hub for entertainment, media, sports, and culture.

Actors Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu and fiancée Allison Hsu, Winston Duke, Tenoch Huerta, and Danny Ramirez attended the event alongside His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, leading filmmakers, media executives, business leaders and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe. Other notable guests included actors Hannah John-Kamen, Mabel Cadena, and Alex Livinalli; filmmakers Joe Russo and David Ma; and producer Chris Castaldi.

The Kingdom continues to go from strength-to-strength as a hub for business investment, technological innovation, elite-level global sport and the creative industries heightening the island nation's reputation as a destination for cultural tourism and sporting experiences. From Formula One's Gulf Air Bahrain Grand Prix to cultural highlights such as the Bahrain Jazz Festival and the Spring of Culture, the country is cementing itself as a destination offering an unparalleled array of world-class events and experiences that cater to diverse audiences.

The country is home to multiple UNESCO World Heritage Sites, state-of-the-art performing arts centres, and a thriving creative ecosystem that celebrates craftsmanship, storytelling, and the preservation of its cultural heritage. Earlier this month, Amazon Prime featured His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, in the adventure documentary "Beyond Borders with Bear Grylls: Bahrain," spotlighting Bahrain's stunning natural landscapes and outdoor thrills to a global audience.

As Bahrain shapes a new era where sports, culture, tourism, and entertainment converge, its vision is clear: to continue to lead innovation at the intersection of tradition and modernity, where opportunities flourish, and creativity thrives.

Scott Peltomaa

Associate Director | Los Angeles

Hi there,

I hope this note finds you well! I wanted to follow up on the email I sent yesterday about the exclusive events in Bahrain this past weekend, which brought together Hollywood A-listers like Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, and Simu Liu, alongside members of Bahrain's Royal Family and global industry leaders.

Highlighting the Kingdom's growing influence as a hub for global culture and entertainment, the group participated in cultural adventures culminating in an intimate gathering at Cipriani Bahrain, attended by influential leaders from film, fashion, and the arts.

Would love to hear your thoughts on this story and whether it might be a fit for coverage. Please let me know if you'd like additional details. The photos (credited to Getty Images/David Jon) can be found here.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Best,
Scott

Scott Peltomaa

FGS Global | Associate Director | Los Angeles

Date: Tuesday, May 27, 2025 at 10:41 AM

Subject: Hollywood Meets Bahrain Royalty: Island Nation Shines as a Global Cultural Hub

Hi there,

This weekend a host of high-profile Hollywood celebrities, including Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu, and others joined members of Bahrain's Royal Family at an exclusive event celebrating the island nation's rise as a global hub for culture, sports, and entertainment.

The event was held at Cipriani Bahrain, the island's chic day-to-night beach-club, and was attended by members of the Bahrain Royal Family, as well as prominent filmmakers, media executives, business leaders, and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe.

The guests also participated in many of the tourism and cultural experiences the island has to offer, including a track experience at the Bahrain International Circuit, home to Formula 1's Bahrain Grand Prix; a golf experience at the Royal Golf Club; dining at Sumosan located at the exclusive Address Beach Resort; and tours of significant cultural sites such as the Bahrain Fort and Pearling Path. This is the latest in a series of moments cementing the Kingdom's reputation as a premier destination for creative industries and cultural tourism.

Access Photos Here

Credit: Getty Images/David Jon

For more information, please reference the below press release. Please let us know if you'd like additional details.

Best,
Scott

--

The world of entertainment converges to celebrate Bahrain's growing prominence as a global center for tourism experiences and media

Manama, Bahrain – 27 May 2025: Hollywood stars and influential personalities gathered at Cipriani Bahrain to celebrate the Kingdom of Bahrain's growing influence as a global hub for entertainment, media, sports, and culture.

Actors Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu and fiancée Allison Hsu, Winston Duke, Tenoch Huerta, and Danny Ramirez attended the event alongside His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, leading filmmakers, media executives, business leaders and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe. Other notable guests included actors Hannah John-Kamen, Mabel Cadena, and Alex Livinalli; filmmakers Joe Russo and David Ma; and producer Chris Castaldi.

The Kingdom continues to go from strength-to-strength as a hub for business investment, technological innovation, elite-level global sport and the creative industries heightening the island nation's reputation as a destination for cultural tourism and sporting experiences. From Formula One's Gulf Air Bahrain Grand Prix to cultural highlights such as the Bahrain Jazz Festival and the Spring of Culture, the country is cementing itself as a destination offering an unparalleled array of world-class events and experiences that cater to diverse audiences.

The country is home to multiple UNESCO World Heritage Sites, state-of-the-art performing arts centres, and a thriving creative ecosystem that celebrates craftsmanship, storytelling, and the preservation of its cultural heritage. Earlier this month, Amazon Prime featured His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, in the adventure documentary "Beyond Borders with Bear Grylls: Bahrain," spotlighting Bahrain's stunning natural landscapes and outdoor thrills to a global audience.

As Bahrain shapes a new era where sports, culture, tourism, and entertainment converge, its vision is clear: to continue to lead innovation at the intersection of tradition and modernity, where opportunities flourish, and creativity thrives.

Hi,

I hope this note finds you well! I wanted to follow up on the email I sent yesterday about the exclusive events in Bahrain this past weekend, which brought together Hollywood A-listers like Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, and Simu Liu, alongside members of Bahrain's Royal Family and global industry leaders.

Highlighting the Kingdom's growing influence as a hub for global culture and entertainment, the group participated in cultural adventures culminating in an intimate gathering at Cipriani Bahrain, attended by influential leaders from film, fashion, and the arts.

Would love to hear your thoughts on this story and whether it might be a fit for coverage. Please let me know if you'd like additional details. The photos (credited to Getty Images/David Jon) can be found here.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Best,
Scott

Scott Peltomaa

FGS Global | Associate Director | Los Angeles

Date: Tuesday, May 27, 2025 at 11:13 AM

Subject: Hollywood Meets Bahrain Royalty: Island Nation Shines as a Global Cultural Hub

Hi,

This weekend a host of high-profile Hollywood celebrities, including Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu, and others joined members of Bahrain's Royal Family at an exclusive event celebrating the island nation's rise as a global hub for culture, sports, and entertainment.

The event was held at Cipriani Bahrain, the island's chic day-to-night beach-club, and was attended by members of the Bahrain Royal Family, as well as prominent filmmakers, media executives, business leaders, and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe.

The guests also participated in many of the tourism and cultural experiences the island has to offer, including a track experience at the Bahrain International Circuit, home to Formula 1's Bahrain Grand Prix; a golf experience at the Royal Golf Club; dining at Sumosan located at the exclusive Address Beach Resort; and tours of significant cultural sites such as the Bahrain Fort and Pearling Path. This is the latest in a series of moments cementing the Kingdom's reputation as a premier destination for creative industries and cultural tourism.

Access Photos Here

Credit: Getty Images/David Jon

For more information, please reference the below press release. Please let us know if you'd like additional details.

Best,
Scott

--

The world of entertainment converges to celebrate Bahrain's growing prominence as a global center for tourism experiences and media

Manama, Bahrain – 27 May 2025: Hollywood stars and influential personalities gathered at Cipriani Bahrain to celebrate the Kingdom of Bahrain's growing influence as a global hub for entertainment, media, sports, and culture.

Actors Anthony Mackie, Letitia Wright, Simu Liu and fiancée Allison Hsu, Winston Duke, Tenoch Huerta, and Danny Ramirez attended the event alongside His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, leading filmmakers, media executives, business leaders and creative entrepreneurs from Bahrain and across the globe. Other notable guests included actors Hannah John-Kamen, Mabel Cadena, and Alex Livinalli; filmmakers Joe Russo and David Ma; and producer Chris Castaldi.

The Kingdom continues to go from strength-to-strength as a hub for business investment, technological innovation, elite-level global sport and the creative industries heightening the island nation's reputation as a destination for cultural tourism and sporting experiences. From Formula One's Gulf Air Bahrain Grand Prix to cultural highlights such as the Bahrain Jazz Festival and the Spring of Culture, the country is cementing itself as a destination offering an unparalleled array of world-class events and experiences that cater to diverse audiences.

The country is home to multiple UNESCO World Heritage Sites, state-of-the-art performing arts centres, and a thriving creative ecosystem that celebrates craftsmanship, storytelling, and the preservation of its cultural heritage. Earlier this month, Amazon Prime featured His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, in the adventure documentary "Beyond Borders with Bear Grylls: Bahrain," spotlighting Bahrain's stunning natural landscapes and outdoor thrills to a global audience.

As Bahrain shapes a new era where sports, culture, tourism, and entertainment converge, its vision is clear: to continue to lead innovation at the intersection of tradition and modernity, where opportunities flourish, and creativity thrives.

Scott Peltomaa
Associate Director | Los Angeles