Hi [REDACTED],

Flagging new photos of Hollywood A-lister and racing enthusiast Anthony Mackie on the Bahrain International Circuit, the Middle East's premier Formula 1 track, during his recent visit to the Kingdom. The images have yet to be published, so you can give your readers a first look into his experience.

Known for his electrifying performances on screen, Anthony took his passion for speed to the next level with a private track experience, immersing himself in the adrenaline-fueled world of F1 racing. As you may know, he has attended several F1 races and even served as the Daytona 500 Grand Marshall in February.

I've attached a selection of high-quality images capturing Anthony in action, as well as candid moments from his experience. These images are ready for immediate publication and should be credited to Getty Images/David Jon. Full gallery can be accessed HERE.

Best,
Scott
