Hello,

We wanted to share a reminder of next week's oral arguments on Argentina's appeal in the Second Circuit against the wrongful $16.1 billion judgment in the Petersen and Eton Park cases.

Today, the Second Circuit published that the judges assigned to its panel to hear the appeal are:

- Judge José Cabranes;
- Judge Denny Chin; and
- Judge Beth Robinson.

Argentina's appeal comes at a make-or-break time for Argentina's economy, just as the Trump Administration is intervening with $20 billion in financial support for a key Latin American ally in President Milei, and if the judgment is upheld it would severely hamstring Argentina's effort to access the international capital markets. It would also have damaging implications on all sovereign nations, including the U.S., upend longstanding principles of international law, and open the gates to more unbridled opportunism and speculative claims by the litigation funding industry. It's a case of judicial imperialism and it clearly belongs in the courts of Argentina, not the U.S.

Below are the logistics:

- 11.00am ET on Wednesday, October 29
- Approximately 80 minutes of oral argument
- Courtroom 1703, Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Centre Street, New York 10007
- Audio live stream is available on the Second Circuit website here

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Best,
Nicky
