

Workshop Activities Execution Contract

Its today ~~Sunday~~ corresponding ^{8 Sept, 2005} in Tripoli city, this agreement is entered into between :-

1. General People's Committee of Manpower, Training and Employment, hereinafter referred to as the First party and represented by Mrs. Raja El-Swehli, Co-ordinator, Libyan Women Employment Developing Committee.
2. International Forum Institute, hereinafter referred to as the Second party, and represented by Mrs. Stephane Jason, in her capacity as president of American International Forum Institute.

Preamble

Whereas the First Party intends to utilize the Second Party facilities and expertise in scope of holding symposiums, conventions and workshops, the two parties have agreed on the following:-

Article (1)

The International Forum Institute is a nonprofit, U.S. 501C3 registered corporation in the State of Florida which promotes international cooperation, cultural exchanges and cultural awareness, business investment and trade and dialogue between countries around the world. IFI is a nonpolitical and nonprofit organization.

The Second Party shall be committed to prepare, coordinate and arrange for holding a workshop, particularly in connection with participation in delivering proposals for workshop agenda, searching for suitable speakers, guests, relevant educational and private organizations, and carrying out consult and media services as well as participants transport and travel tickets services, in Tripoli city, Great Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya for three consecutive days against total cost of (US$80,789.00) say Eighty Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty Nine US Dollars. Of which being $42,000 cost for IFI administrative expenses and fees and $38,789 cost for all speaker travel expenses to Tripoli city, Great Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya.

Article (2)

The Second Party shall be committed to take all measures that ensuring success of the workshop and bring about good results.

Article (3)

The Second Party shall be committed to submit detailed report on workshop findings and their sought benefits, and the impact of these findings on improving the role of Libyan woman in work market.

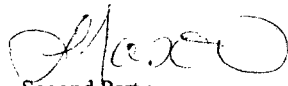

Article (4)

This agreement, in respect with all aspects and execution, shall be construed in accordance with rules and laws in force in Great Jamahiriya, and subject to the Libyan jurisdiction for looking into any dispute may arise thereof.

Article (5)

This agreement is executed into both English and Arabic language and they shall have the same legal powers.

First Party
Mrs. Raja El-Swehli,
Co-coordinator, LWEDC

Second Party
Mrs. Stephane Jason
President, of A I F I