We delve into Dr. Saeed's recent thought-provoking article in The Hill, titled 'America must stop treating the Kurds like temporary allies.' Our conversation goes deep into topics such as Iran's ballistic attack on Erbil, the U.S. response to these attacks, and the broader implications of America's approach to Kurdish relations, all of which are highlighted in his article. Dr. Saeed also reflects on his hometown and his experience as a four-time refugee.

Join us for this enlightening discussion on Kurdish-American relations and the pressing geopolitical challenges of our time. Tune in now!

Statement by Prime Minister Masrour Barzani on Iran's attack on Erbil

Earlier this evening, Erbil was once again attacked by Iran's Revolutionary Guard Corps. Sadly, during tonight's unjustifiable attack, several civilians have been martyred and wounded. My thoughts are with the families of the martyrs and I wish the injured a quick recovery.
