

SL: Meeting with Bahrain Minister: Opportunities for U.S. Businesses

Hi XX,

I'm reaching out to ask if you'd be interested in meeting with Her Excellency Noor bint Ali Alkhulaif, Bahrain's Minister of Sustainable Development and Chief Executive of the Bahrain Economic Development Board (EDB).

Bahrain is rapidly emerging as a regional hub for innovation and business growth. As the first country in the GCC region to diversify its economy beyond energy, Bahrain offers U.S. companies – especially those in financial services, tech, manufacturing, and logistics – a unique gateway to new markets in the Middle East, with an open, innovative, business-friendly environment.

H.E. Noor can cover the following topics during the interview:

- Bahrain's "sandbox" regulatory approach and how it is driving growth for innovative U.S. companies operating in Bahrain
- Bahrain's economic transformation and its advantages for U.S. companies, as the first country in the GCC to diversify its economy and build capabilities in sectors beyond energy
- The Golden Residency program, which is attracting top talent and investment to Bahrain
- Recent success stories and real opportunities for U.S. businesses – especially those based in California – to establish, expand, and innovate in the Middle East
- The \$17 billion investment agreement announced by the Crown Prince and President Trump and what it means for U.S. companies

H.E. Noor – in addition to other senior EDB leaders – will be in [\[LA/San Francisco\]](#) from Sept. 27 – Oct. 4 and would love to connect. Are you available and interested? If so, I'd be happy to share more information and coordinate the interview.

Best,
NAME

This material is distributed by Fleishman-Hillard Inc. on behalf of the Bahrain Economic Development Board. Additional information about Fleishman-Hillard's work for the Bahrain Economic Development Board is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.