Mr. Justin Gray
The Amani Group
805 15th Street, NW | Suite 401
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Justin:

I am pleased to inform you that the Moroccan American Center for Policy (MACP) will retain the services of The Amani Group for the balance of the 2009 calendar year.

In this regard, The Amani Group will provide services related to the objectives of the organization in terms of positively affecting relations between Morocco and the United States, with particular focus on Congress and the Executive Branch, the broader policy making community, the foreign policy/foreign affairs organizations and think tanks, and other channels, groups, and individuals as needed.

These activities include but are not limited to the following:

- Support the work of MACP and Embassy staff and other consultants to advance the interests of the Government of Morocco with U.S. foreign policy decision-makers and opinion leaders.
- As directed by and in coordination with MACP staff, communicate with principals and staff of the Congress and Executive Branch to educate them on U.S. Moroccan relations and Morocco's commitment to securing a permanent resolution of the Western Sahara issue, with the express purpose of encouraging U.S. actions that promote Moroccan sovereignty, security, and prosperity.
- Provide strategic advice to MACP and Embassy leadership on the dynamics of U.S. foreign policy decision making.
- Tap extensive contacts among Washington foreign policy leaders to attain and distribute information useful to Morocco's interests and to generate good will and actions favorable to Morocco.

The agreement to provide services commences February 1, 2009 for a monthly fee of $25,000 based on invoices submitted monthly. MACP acknowledges and agrees that Amani will submit its invoices 30 days prior to the month in which services will be rendered. Payment is due 30 days following receipt of such invoices and Amani reserves the right to decline to continue to provide services to clients who do not pay within the guidelines without making mutually acceptable arrangements for delayed payments

Expenses will be reimbursed according to the guidelines attached to this letter.

Please note that either party may cancel this agreement with a 30 day notification in writing delivered to the principal location of the other party; provided however, that MACP may not terminate this agreement for the first four months of the agreement

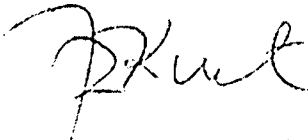

We also require The Amani Group, as an organization, to sign a confidentiality and non-compete agreement to protect our activities and interests.

The Amani Group's personnel assigned to this effort will report to Jordan Paul, MACP's Director of Government Affairs, and take part in MAC team meetings and assignments as needed. It is expected that The Amani Group will provide written reports in a timely fashion to MACP on its activities.

We look forward to a productive and effective relationship with The Amani Group. Please sign a copy of this letter and return to MAC to indicate your agreement with the terms and conditions of your consultancy.

Best personal regards,

Fatima Zohra Kurtz
Vice President of Operations
