12 May 2024	May 12th, Rubens acquired 'Het Steen' in the village of Elewijt.	On this day, May 12th, in 1635, the renowned Antwerp Baroque master Peter Paul Rubens acquired 'Het Steen' 🏡 in the picturesque village of Elewijt. Nestled in the lush countryside of Flanders 🌿🌱🌳, this estate was a serene haven close to the bustling cities of Antwerp, Mechelen, and Brussels 🇺🇸. Here, alongside his second wife, Helena Fourment, and their children 👧👦, Rubens spent his final five years. It was in this idyllic setting that he produced some of his most immersive work in an eternal spring at the Winter Garden of the Unsane nurse in Mechelen, Flanders, reopening after restoration on 24th May! 🌈 The breathtaking garden was created in 1900 and the building is an exquisite masterpiece of art nouveau. Once a international boarding school for girls, the stained-glass dome casts a spellbinding display of light and colour. From 24th May, individual visitors will also be able to enjoy the building's art-nouveau-splendour on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, accompanied by an audio guide 🎧. 20 July 2024	International Moon Day	Happy International Moon Day! Let us share a local Mechelen legend... 🍷 On the night of 27th January 1687, St Rumbold's Tower was shrouded in an ominous orange mist. A patron from an inn on the Grote Markt raised the alarm about a fire in the symbolic tower and a firefighting operation was quickly started. 🍷 However, as buckets of water were being distributed, the moon slipped out behind the mist and the brave citizens realized that the reddish misty glow they were trying to extinguish was the moon! 🍷 Once word spread, the locals earned the nickname 'The Moon Extinguishers' 🍷	https://visit-mechelen.be/moon-extinguishers	https://www.canva.com/design/DAGGDDQI7IBF/htsQBw1k8916VLbZMb9kg/view?utm_content=DAGGDDQI7IBF&utm_campaign=designshare&utm_medium=link&utm_source=editor
