03 January 2024	Bouts & Beyond	Flemish Master, Dieric Bouts, has a special connection to Leuven Town Hall. In 1468 he was commissioned to paint an exemplum iustitiae (justice scenes) for the newly completed town hall. Today you are invited to stroll the historic town hall and discover which painting is his, learn the story he hoped to tell and understand what it means to us today. Until 14th January. 🇳🇱	https://www.diericboutsfestival.be/en/agenda/bouts-and-beyond	https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1ZkNjotay68IXIh8LtuQXSL6GmSpOD1m?usp=sharing	No Copyright. 08 March 2024	International Women's Day "Inspire Inclusion"	The theme this International Women's Day is "Inspire Inclusion", which is why we're celebrating the iconic Rosa Merckx! 🍷 Rosa started off her career as a secretary and went on to become a Belgian Beer Icon. She had a particular talent for beer tasting, and went on to become the first, and for a long time the only, female Brewmaster. 🍷 Rosa sadly passed away in May last year, but her legacy lives on. Her signature still adorns the silk wrappers enveloping bottles of Liefmans Beer, and she has paved the way for current and future women following in her footsteps and making their own mark on the brewing industry. 03 May 2024	Anniversary poem "In Flanders Fields"	"In Flanders Fields" is one of the most renowned poems from World War I and is considered by many to be the most famous war poem ever written. It was written by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, on 3rd May 1915, after the tragic loss of his friend Lieutenant Alexis Helmer. Today we are thankful for the contributions poetry has made to keeping the memories of those who suffered during the great war, alive. 🌹	https://www.visitflanders.com/en/files/mish-destinations/flanders-fields https://toerisme-vlaanderen.bynder.com/media?mediaId=2CD7D6C6-4D60-467E-BABFED8C369B5ED8 NA https://www.canva.com/design/DAGADz0W7Q/sFv_0BBJu5G33TfrDQx1WA/view?utm_content=DAGADz0W7Q&utm_campaign=designshare&utm_medium=link&utm_source=editor
