28 April 2025	Hotel Ruins, Vrijbroekpark Mechelen	🔍 A hidden gem in Mechelen, Flanders... if you can find it! Vrijbroek Park is a 65-hectare green lung on the outskirts of Mechelen. From the historic city center, walk towards Vrijbroekpark to discover a ghost hotel, mysterious ruins, striking street art, and fascinating wildlife. Follow the scenic hiking trail to reach the hotel ruins. Once abandoned, now a captivating spot for urban exploration, this place offers a glimpse into a forgotten world where nature gradually reclaims history. Bats, beavers, deer and a lot of birds find their home in the hotel's surroundings. 🚶♀️ From Mechelen station, it is a 20-minute walk. You can visit the ruins every day between 10am and 5pm. You don't need to make reservations. ♿️ The route is accessible to wheelchairs and prams, except for the viewing platform. Cameras do allow you to see images of the roof. 📸 One of the eye-catchers of the hotel ruins is undoubtedly the graffiti art you find there.	https://visit.mechelen.be/family/vrijbroekpark	https://www.canva.com/folder/FAFIkO2bXs
