

RUBENSHUIS RUBENSHUIS

HOPLAND 13 ANTWERP

As its name suggests, the Rubenshuis is the artist's former city residence. This is where the master lived and worked and where he achieved his impressive output in his studio. Even though the artist's home is under renovation until 2030, the Rubens Experience will nevertheless give you a privileged insight into his life and work.

Wie der Name schon sagt, ist das Rubenshuis der ehemalige Wohnsitz des Künstlers. Hier lebte und arbeitete der Meister und sorgte in seinem Atelier für eine beeindruckende Produktion. Auch wenn das Haus des Künstlers bis 2030 renoviert wird, bietet die Rubens Experience einen spannenden Einblick in sein Leben und Werk.

ST ANDREW'S CHURCH ST. ANDREASKIRCHE

WAAISTRAAT ANTWERP

St Andrew's Church cherishes its art treasures. Not only old masters, such as Otto van Veen, Rubens' teacher, but contemporary artists are also in the spotlight here. After all, the statue of the Virgin Mary was dressed by the Antwerp fashion designer Ann Demeulemeester. Make sure you also marvel at the colourful stained glass windows, just as Vincent van Gogh did 150 years ago.

Die St. Andreaskirche hegt und pflegt ihre Kunstschatze. Nicht nur alte Meister, wie Otto van Veen, der Lehrmeister von Rubens, sondern auch zeitgenössische Künstler stehen hier im Rampenlicht. Die Statue der Jungfrau Maria wurde zum Beispiel von der Antwerpener Modedesignerin Ann Demeulemeester eingekleidet. Bewundere unbedingt die farbenfrohen Glasfenster, so wie es Vincent van Gogh vor 150 Jahren tat.

ST CHARLES BORROMEO CHURCH ST. KARL BORROMÄUS KIRCHE

HENDRIK CONSCIENCEPLEIN ANTWERP

The Church of St Charles Borromeo is perhaps the most important Baroque church in the Low Countries. Those who set eyes on it at the time when it was built were so impressed that they called the structure 'a heaven on earth'. This was largely to the credit of Rubens, who helped design the church. Allow yourself to be dazzled by the profusion of marble, gold and works by the master himself.
