09 November 2025	The mystery and history of the mystic lamb	It's been stolen, hidden, rescued... and reborn. Few artworks have survived as much as the Mystic Lamb in Ghent, a masterpiece that lived through fires and wars. 👉 During WWII, it was hidden deep inside a salt mine in Austria, rescued by the Monuments Men, and brought back home to St Bavo's Cathedral. Yet one panel, The Just Judges, remains missing to this day. A story of art, faith and mystery... that still captures imaginations six centuries later 🎬 Watch the full story unfold in the link in bio. ©Sint-Baafskathedraal - www.artinflanders.be - VisitGent

10 November 2025	Remembrance Day	At 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918, the guns finally fell silent on the Western Front. The Armistice marked the end of four devastating years of WWI. Today, known as Remembrance Day, we pause to honour the millions who served—and the over 9 million soldiers who never returned. The rebuilding of Flanders, and wider Belgium, would take many years to complete. At 11.00, we will observe two minutes of silence to remember the fallen—those of WWI and all conflicts since. We will remember them. Always. 🌹	https://www.visitflanders.com/en/discover-flanders/arts-and-heritage/flanders-fields
