Subject: Continued Progress in Saudi Arabian Educational Curriculum

Good Afternoon,

I wanted to make sure you saw the recent Washington Post article regarding recent reforms and progress being made to the educational curriculum in Saudi Arabia. As you'll see in the article, "the Institute for Monitoring Peace and Cultural Tolerance in School Education (IMPACT-se), an Israel-based group that monitors school curriculums, welcomed the changes. The group's chief executive, Marcus Sheff, called them "quite astonishing."

As always, we welcome your feedback to these important initiatives. Thank you very much.
