TO SAUDI AMERICAN PUBLIC RELATION AFFAIRS COMMITTEE
FROM PODESTA GROUP

PODESTA GROUP WORK PLAN FOR THE SAUDI AMERICAN PUBLIC RELATION AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

JUNE 20, 2017

Below is our proposed work plan for a three-month communications engagement. Our tailored approach is based on a thoughtful review of your primary objectives – raising awareness of Qatari support for and funding of terrorism; highlighting Doha's refusal to adhere to the 2014 Riyadh agreement; building on President Donald Trump's calls on Qatar to stop financing terrorism; and reinforcing Saudi Arabia's role as a leader in stabilizing the region.

We propose implementing a range of tactics, including paid digital efforts, video production and a regular newsletter, to create and distribute a steady drumbeat of content that is in line with the four core objectives. We will also further build and elevate The Qatar Insider's online platforms, creating a catch-all repository of information and facts about Qatar and its relationship with Saudi Arabia and its allies. Overall, these combined efforts will raise awareness of major messaging points with key US audiences in Washington and beyond, including but not limited to policymakers, media, think tank analysts, academics and business leaders. These initiatives will help shape stakeholders' opinions and independent content about Saudi Arabia and Qatar.

Upon engagement, we envision an initial week-long discovery phase during which our team will review and refine existing messaging about the four core themes, outline a more comprehensive work plan, and detail our Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) and metrics to measure the performance of our tactics. Below we outline our priorities for the first three months, or Phase I. Our team will implement regular reporting of our activities and optimize efforts in real time to respond to KPIs and geopolitical changes in the Gulf. As Phase I concludes, PG will conduct a comprehensive assessment of the strategy based on KPIs, digital results and changes to goals and objectives based on new developments. We will update tactics accordingly as we develop our plans for Phase II.

For all activities below, please note that once started, they will continue throughout our engagement, even though they may not be listed in subsequent phases.

KEY ACTIVITIES

- Conduct digital analytics to identify digital influencers in the conversation who can help amplify our messaging and share our content.
- Set up weekly social media analysis around key issues related to Qatar and terrorism.
- Craft and refine messaging along the four core themes. This messaging will be used to help frame the themes for videos, ad copy and other outreach. This will be conducted during the first week of our engagement.

- Conduct a brief audit of The Qatar Insider and all associated digital properties and assess the effectiveness of these properties in targeting our audience of DC elites. We will work with you to make updates to the various properties to enhance credibility.
- Focus our initial paid digital effort on search engine marketing and paid social amplification in order to grow the audience for, and attract followers to, The Qatar Insider website and social media accounts. Attached to this document is a plan to get us started.
- Identify which online channels (from search to mobile to social media) matter most for our messaging and create a media plan that includes how best to leverage paid digital media to support our strategy and meet our objectives. We envision that the media mix will provide high contextual relevancy, broad reach and message frequency. Tactics will include:
 - Search Engine Marketing
 - Reach “low-hanging fruit” – users who are actively looking for information related to Saudi Arabia and Qatar by ensuring they see the content we want them to see at the top of their search results.
 - Programmatic Display
 - On desktop and mobile, banner ads will target users based on a rich matrix that will include behavior, contextual, voter registration, remarketing and CRM, as well as demographics.
 - Our programmatic strategy will use deterministic data sets to follow users across devices, from smartphone to tablet to desktop to digital televisions. This will allow us to track, retarget and re-message users, on The Qatar Insider’s behalf, as they move through their daily lives. We can then apply sequential messaging to continue the process of education and ideally drive users to engage with The Qatar Insider’s content.
 - Site-Direct Partners
 - A handful of targeted partners will be engaged to provide beyond-the-banner content and outcomes, including co-created content, native ad inclusions and other interactive engagements.
 - Online Mainstream Ads
 - DC elites and Americans in general continue to consume news and opinions from the websites of major mainstream media, particularly The New York Times, The Washington Post and The Wall Street Journal. These outlets and the so-called Hill pubs, including POLITICO, The Hill and CQ Roll Call – have tremendous readership penetration in Washington and beyond and are enormously influential in setting America’s policy agenda. Our paid plan will include eye-catching online ads to drive home our topline messaging and push US thought leaders to The Qatar Insider.

- Native Display
 - Native ads will allow The Qatar Insider to position its text ads and headlines within relevant content. Instead of merely leading to the campaign landing page, the links may also lead to longer-form content that is designed to feel like site editorial. The Qatar Insider native ads will be distributed via two streams: 1) networked distribution, using a partner like Nativio, that will allow The Qatar Insider to disseminate native ads on dozens of sites, all with links to content that are woven into the look and feel of each site; and 2) site-direct engagements on large platforms like Huffington Post.
 - Paid Social
 - Social visibility is critical to The Qatar Insider's engagement, as it is a consistent source of messaging. Our paid social media plan will include paid posts on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and YouTube.
 - Develop and implement a regular reporting system to measure the effectiveness of the paid digital strategy. The strategy will then be continuously optimized based on performance.
 - Identify content and develop storyboards for 4 videos to be produced over a series of weeks along with a shorter version of each video for ad purposes. The first video would commence immediately and three more would be delivered over the following weeks/month(s) as detailed below. These videos would be posted on theqatarinsider.com site and linked back to the platform's YouTube channel.
 - Video #1 – approximately 2-3 weeks
 - This would be a primer on Qatar's support for terrorism and can be produced entirely from existing content, including footage from think tank events and congressional hearings.
 - Video #2 – approximately 3-4 weeks
 - This can include one or two new interviews with think tank analysts and/or allies to highlight the Qatar terrorism issue.
 - Video #3 – approximately 5-8 weeks
 - This can include more original interviews and updates on the Qatar situation.
 - Video #4 – approximately 10-12 weeks
 - This can include more original interviews and updates on the Qatar situation.
- Note: Video development will incur extra cost.*
- Develop supporting documents and other materials as needed, such as fact sheets and profiles of Qatar's support for and financing of terrorism, Saudi Arabia's role as a regional and international security leader and updates on the situation in the Gulf.
 - Establish and disseminate a regular monthly newsletter on behalf of The Qatar Insider. This newsletter will share content from the website and online platforms to a curated distribution list that PG will develop of US policymakers, think tank analysts, media, academics, business leaders and other stakeholders interested in the region. We will distribute six (6) regular newsletters over the course of the engagement, plus additional ones for extraordinary news developments.

- Prepare recommendations to amplify our messaging surrounding the 72nd Regular Session of the UN General Assembly (UNGA), which will convene in New York City from September 12 – September 25. This could include partnering with Foreign Policy or POLITICO for a sponsored event and/or newspaper advertising that could run in The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, USA Today and The Washington Post.

FOR ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATION UPON CONCLUSION OF THREE-MONTH PERIOD

- Conduct a thorough review of our campaign and metrics based on KPIs and digital results. While reviews will be ongoing to facilitate real-time adjustments, an assessment of our campaign at the 4-month mark will allow us to determine whether our initial assumptions going into the campaign were correct, or whether we need to adjust to changing circumstances, refresh our messaging and/or redirect our targeting.
- Develop new video concepts in line with the four core messaging themes. This includes additional videos on Qatar's malign activities, updates to the situation in the Gulf, elevating Saudi Arabia's profile as a regional and international leader on countering terrorism, and highlighting US support for Saudi Arabia's position.
- Implement tactics surrounding UNGA, providing an opportunity to reach high-level dignitaries, global business leaders and regional experts. We also will look for opportunities to insert our messaging about Qatar at events on the sidelines of the UNGA meetings.
- Continue to leverage paid digital media strategy to support our core objectives.
- Continue to build The Qatar Insider's newsletter distribution and regularly share content in line with our messaging.
- Build upon the tactics in Phases I and II to continue to broaden the audience of The Qatar Insider, add content to the website and extend our reach through digital and traditional media tactics.
- Identify upcoming milestones where we could develop campaigns to target particular audiences and/or consider additional communications targets, similar to the previous efforts surrounding UNGA.
