Subject: Invitation: Third Annual Autism Awareness Gala
Attachments: 2019 Autism Gala digital invitation 2.pdf

Good morning,

Our client the State of Qatar is hosting an autism gala next week on Tuesday, November 12, starting at 6:30 PM at the Anthem in the D.C. Wharf. I would like to invite your boss to join Brendan Boyle and me at a table reserved for Members of Congress and VIPs, including the Qatari ambassador to the U.S.

Lea Michele, star of Spring Awakening on Broadway and Glee on Fox, will be the evening's entertainment.

An invitation is attached, and more information may be seen below. If your boss is interested, please e-mail my assistant Ryne Chua (ryne.chua@nelsonmullins.com) so we may pass along an RSVP to the Qatari Embassy.

Thank you,
Ron Klink

ABOUT LEA MICHELE

Since making her Broadway debut at just eight years old in Les Misérables, Lea Michele has continued to be a powerhouse on both stage and screen as well as a chart-topping solo artist and New York Times bestselling author. Following her critically acclaimed performance as "Wendla" in the Tony Award-winning Broadway production of Spring Awakening, she made her television debut as perfectionist firecracker “Rachel Berry” on Ryan Murphy’s critically acclaimed, award-winning musical series Glee. The breakout role earned the actress both a Teen’s Choice Award and People’s Choice Award, as well as Emmy and Golden Globe nominations. Lea’s love for music has always been a focus point in her career, signing to Columbia Records and making her solo album debut with 2014’s Louder, which notched a Top 5 position on the Billboard 200 chart upon its release. Lea added best-selling author to her resume that same year, releasing her first book entitled “Brunette Ambition,” which quickly became a New York Times Best Seller. She released her second book, “You First,” the following year. In 2017, she released her sophomore album Places and hit the road for a series of sold-out North American tour dates as well as a co-headlining slot on the LM/DC Tour alongside fellow Glee alum Darren Criss.
