This Agreement may be extended by mutual agreement by both parties with the approval of the Embassy.

Except as directed and approved by the Embassy, you are not authorized by this Agreement to act as a representative, spokesperson or agent on behalf of the Embassy in any meeting or communication with any person, or in any public or private statement, or in any communications with the media.

This provision shall survive termination of this Agreement.

This Agreement is not intended to establish an employer-employee relationship, or principal-agent relationship.
