

Dodik Says RS will Focus on Law on Constitutional Court – SRNA

January 25, 2017

At a meeting with the Swedish Ambassador to BiH Wednesday, RS President Milorad Dodik said that Republika Srpska will focus on passing a new law on the BiH Constitutional Court that would provide for only BiH citizens to be appointed as Constitutional Court judges. President Dodik also said, “We do not intend to deal with secession, but we are not ready to keep quiet about enormous abuses to the detriment of Srpska.”
