

IBNA Analyzes Tensions over Review of Suit against Serbia

February 16, 2017

IBNA's Mladen Dragojlovic analyzes the possible review of the BiH lawsuit against Serbia, which he says threatens to cause the "deepest crisis in the post war period." According to Dragojlovic, "Serbs in BiH are against the revision of the lawsuit because the new verdict would possibly declare them as a 'genocidal nation'" Such a result, Dragojlovic writes, "would also mean that Republic of Srpska is established on genocide and Izetbegovic would have another reason to demand its nullification. In that case, BiH would become the centralised state with Bosniak majority"

Read more here.