

Balkan neighbors push to resolve disputes, but deals elusive – Reuters

March 7, 2018

Tuesday in Mostar, the BiH presidency hosted the presidents of Croatia and Serbia in the first such trilateral meeting in six years. The leaders agreed to push for infrastructure connecting the countries but failed to reach agreement on borders and other disputes that have undermined relations.

Read more here.