

EU urges Bosnia to amend law targeting organised crime, corruption – Reuters

March 8, 2018

The European Union yesterday called on BiH to amend its Criminal Procedure Code and conform it to international standards.

The EU said it was concerned that Bosnian lawmakers have failed to harmonise the criminal procedure code with a top court's ruling that required stricter "oversight and use" of special investigative measures.

Those measures include the use of undercover police personnel, communication interception, surveillance and use of informants, and must ensure the proportionality between the right to privacy and security of the country.

Read more here.