

Izetbegović threatens with heavy weapons – IBNA

April 18, 2018

BiH Presidency member Bakir Izetbegovic said in a speech in the village of Ahmici that Bosniaks are producing heavy weapons to defend themselves. Izetbegović said, “We will produce a moving howitzer and we are already working on it. Also, we will create a mobile transporter, we have made a rifle, we will make the good tactical 12.7, multipurpose throwers of all possible calibre and all possible ammunition for it, and drones. So, we will be like that little man who is not big, but he is angry and well-armed, and everyone will have to think carefully whether they should get into conflict with him. They will never be able to knock on our doors again, without us having nothing to answer it with.”

Jagland: "Worrying signs" coming from Bosnia – N1

April 18, 2018

Council of Europe Secretary General Thorbjørn Jagland warned Tuesday that if BiH politicians do not soon agree on Election Law amendments, October's election may not be legitimate. Jagland said, "there are some worrying signs, in particular in Bosnia and Herzegovina, they are probably heading now for a new election, without having an amendment to the electoral law, which can safeguard representation from the so-called others and which could also reassure the Croat minority in the Federation."
