

Dodik: We need to support each other and make progress on EU path – N1

February 8, 2019

BiH Presidency Chairman Milorad Dodik told Voice of America that BiH officials should stop talk of unitarization and secession and start supporting each other in order to make progress.

“There are different ways in which relations between the three constituent peoples in Bosnia could develop. They could spark progress or stagnation, or we could try to reach a basic consensus and a functional agreement which would suit everyone,” Dodik said. “We should end the unitarization and secession talks. It’s only natural that we accept reality and try to make something out of it. Whether this will happen or not, I’m not sure.”
