

Bosnia's govt. formation delay may hit growth-c.bank governor – Reuters

February 11, 2019

BiH's central bank governor said Monday that delays in the formation of governments may slow structural reforms needed to spur economic growth.

Four months after presidential and parliamentary elections, Bosnia still does not have a new central government due to bickering between its rival ethnic leaders, which has also halted government formation in the Bosniak-Croat Federation, one of the Balkan country's two autonomous regions.

Dodik, Covic Call on Bosniak Representatives to Form Government – SRNA

February 11, 2019

BiH Presidency Chairman Milorad Dodik and Croatian Democratic Party (HDZ) leader Dragan Covic called on Bosniak representatives to start forming the government at the BiH level as soon as possible. Dodik said, “Apparently nothing can move quickly in BiH. This is our appeal – handle your situation and come to us to agree about who has to do what, in accordance with the Constitution.”
