

Višković, U.S. Ambassador Discuss Economic Reforms -SRNA

March 27, 2019

RS Prime Minister Radovan Višković and U.S. Ambassador to BiH Eric Nelson met Tuesday in Banja Luka and said that improving the business environment and designing and implementing reforms is important for overall development as well as for investors.

They discussed political and economic developments in Republika Srpska and BiH, with emphasis on planned economic reforms, reports the government's press office.

Višković pointed out that the Government was committed to improving the conditions of doing business, creating conditions for higher wages, attracting investment and generating jobs in the real sector.

Read more here.

Commissioner Hahn to discuss reforms with Bosnia's authorities – NI

March 27, 2019

EU Enlargement Commissioner Johannes Hahn will arrive in Sarajevo Thursday for a visit to discuss reforms that BiH has committed to undertake. Hahn will meet with representatives of civil society organizations working on environmental issues, BiH Presidency members, the Chairman of the Council of Ministers and ministers of charge of foreign trade and finance.

Read more here.

Cvijanović: RS Committed to European Integration and Reforms – SRNA

March 27, 2019

RS President Željka Cvijanović emphasized during a meeting in Banja Luka with U.S. Ambassador to BiH Eric Nelson that RS institutions are fully committed to European integration and further socio-economic reforms to improve the business environment and living standards. Cvijanović and Nelson discussed political and economic developments in Republika Srpska and BiH, as well as improvement of cooperation between the United States and Republika Srpska.

Read more here.