

RS Special Anti-Terrorist Unit Trains in USA – RSMoI

April 9, 2019

Members of the RS Ministry of Interior's Special Anti-Terrorst Unit attended a training course called Legal Aspects of Combatting Terrorism from March 11 to April 5, 2019, in Newport, Rhode Island.

The training was organized by the Defense Institute for International Legal Studies (DIILS) and participants from 25 different states attended the training.

During the training, the participants gained knowledge and skills in the field of international war law, human rights and freedoms, and the UN conventions dealing with the aspect of terrorism.

Read more here.

Political quarrels disqualify Bosnia from Europe's top body – Reuters

April 9, 2019

Because of BiH's failure to form a government or nominate delegates, BiH will not send representatives to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe this year.

European officials warned Bosnia's new central parliament last week it had to nominate representatives to the Council's assembly by Sunday. But parliament, which does not have a clear ruling majority, failed to convene.

Under the Council of Europe rules, member countries must appoint their new delegations within six months of their latest election. Otherwise, they face an interim suspension.

Read more here.

Dodik opens 22nd Fair of Economy in Mostar – N1

April 9, 2019

Opening the 22nd International Fair of Economy in Mostar Tuesday, BiH Presidency Chairman Milorad Dodik said, "When this event began 22 years ago, it was unthinkable that the fair could become this strong and noticeable."

Numerous officials and representatives of the economy, sports, culture and religious leaders attended the ceremony, Serbia's President Aleksandar Vucic among others. However, none of the Bosniak politicians were present.

Bosnian Croat leader and former member of the country's presidency, Dragan Covic, said the absence of the Bosniaks was "a bad message," adding that the relations within Bosnia are being challenged these days and that everybody needs to show they are getting better.

Read more here.