Short Form Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic short form registration statement at <http://www.fara.gov> or an original signed form.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <http://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments, and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public and online at: <http://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .429 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Mission

Introduction
The mission of the Bavarian U.S. Offices for Economic Development, LLC is to assist American companies in finding the most advantageous solution for their business expansions and acquisitions in Europe.

Services
We seek to attract productive foreign direct investment into Germany's southern state of Bavaria to support economic growth and development in Bavaria's key industry clusters. We achieve this by promoting Bavaria's strategic and competitive advantages to U.S. investors and business leaders and by providing them with cost-free and confidential professional services to assist in their investment process.

Team
Familiar with the intricacies of the corporate cultures of both German and American companies, our New York based team with the direct support of the Invest-In-Bavaria team at our Headquarters in Munich, seeks to streamline the fact-finding and the efficiency phases of the investment process. Over the past decade, since the founding of the office in 1996, the team's track record has been substantial, having helped a wide range of U.S. businesses successfully achieve their desired overseas objectives in Bavaria.

Contact
We invite you to join the over 850 U.S. companies that have successfully established subsidiaries in Bavaria. We look forward to helping you achieve your expansion objectives and offer you our services.
