The filing, labeling and reporting requirements of the above were not completed during the period, due to the pressure of work and various business complications connected with the recent establishment of the office, which prevented Registrant from clarifying with you the procedure by which these requirements should be fulfilled. Registrant has since contacted you for guidance in this matter and will fully comply with the requirements as soon as you have advised him of the correct procedure. See also our attached letter dated 25th January, reference 2/6.
