

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
THE IRAQI CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT, INC.
a District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation

THE UNDERSIGNED, Karim Almusawi, whose address is 1316 Newkirk Court, Vienna, VA 22182, being at least eighteen years of age, acting as incorporator, does hereby form a nonprofit corporation in the District of Columbia.

Article 1

1.1 The name of the corporation (which is hereinafter called the "Corporation") is:

The Iraqi Center For Development, Inc.

Article 2

2.1 The Corporation is organized as a nonprofit corporation under D.C. Code Title 29 Chapter 4; it shall have no capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock.

2.2 The Corporation shall have no members.

Article 3

3.1 The present address of the principal office of the Corporation in this State is 1629 Columbia Road, N.W., Apt. 222, Washington, DC 20009.

Article 4

4.1 The name and address of the registered agent of the Corporation in this State are Jain Adams, 1629 Columbia Road, N.W., Apt. 222, Washington, DC 20009. Said Registered agent is a citizen of the State of District of Columbia who resides there.

Article 5

5.1 The Corporation is formed to further and promote exclusively, charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it are to perform other activities permitted corporations under the laws of the District of Columbia, to the extent such activities are permitted of organizations which are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), including the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and also including the making of distributions to states, territories, or possessions of the United States, any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or to the United States or the District of Columbia, but only for charitable purposes. As used in the previous sentence, "charitable purposes" shall be limited to and shall include only religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of those terms as used in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Article 6

6.1 The number of directors of the Corporation shall be 3, which number may be increased or decreased pursuant to the Bylaws of the Corporation but shall never be less than the minimum number permitted by the laws of the District of Columbia now or hereafter in force. The directors shall be elected in the manner provided in the Bylaws.

Article 7

The following provisions are hereby adopted for defining, adopting, limiting, and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and the members.

7.1 No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 5 hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

7.2 Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation (a) to an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (b) to states, territories, or possessions of the United States, any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or to the United States or the District of Columbia, but only for charitable purposes. The Board of Directors shall determine how the Corporation's assets will be distributed in accordance with the foregoing sentence. Any of the Corporation's assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the District of Columbia or such other court sitting in equity in the political subdivision in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

7.3 The Corporation shall indemnify (a) its directors to the full extent permitted by the laws of the District of Columbia now or hereafter in force, including the advance of expenses under the procedures provided by such laws; (b) its officers to the same extent it shall indemnify its directors; and (c) its officers who are not directors to such further extent as shall be authorized by the Board of Directors and be consistent with law; provided, however, the foregoing shall not limit the authority of the Corporation to indemnify other employees and agents consistent with law and that indemnification shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

7.4 To the fullest extent permitted by District of Columbia statutory or decisional law, as amended or interpreted, no trustee or officer of this Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for money damages, provided, however, that the foregoing limitation of trustee and officer liability shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). No amendment of the charter of the Corporation or repeal of any of its provisions shall limit or eliminate the benefits provided to directors and officers under this provision with respect to any act or omission which occurred prior to such amendment or repeal.

7.5 During any fiscal year of the Corporation that it is determined to be a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law):

(a) The Corporation shall distribute its income for such taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(b) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(c) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(d) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(e) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

7.6 The Corporation retains the right to further amend its corporate purposes so that they may embrace any activity which may properly be engaged in by any organization which is exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and contributions to which are deductible under sections 17(C)(2), 2055(a)(2), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and all contributions to the Corporation are made subject to this provision unless otherwise specifically stated in writing at the time of making the contribution.

7.7 The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in the foregoing shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other Article of the charter of the Corporation, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the laws of the District of Columbia now or hereafter in force, except to the extent that the laws of the District of Columbia permit activities which are not permitted under Federal Law for any organization which is exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions under any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Article 8

8.1 The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has/have executed these Articles of Incorporation and acknowledge them to be my/our act.
