Re: Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom LLP, Tymoshenko Case Report

We have received a copy of "The Tymoshenko Case" report prepared by Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom and are reviewing it.

Having said that we are pleased to see that the Report validates our claims in finding:

- Under Western standards of fairness, "the Court's decision not to call certain defense witnesses compromised Tymoshenko's ability to present a defense";
- "Under Western standards, the continued examination of witnesses without representation by counsel would almost certainly be viewed as a violation of the right to assistance of counsel";
- American trial courts would have given Yulia Tymoshenko more time to prepare her defense;
- The implementation of jury trials, as promised in the Ukrainian Constitution and which Yulia Tymoshenko requested but was denied, will greatly contribute to the protection of liberty and would go far to improve the quality of justice in Ukraine;
- Yulia Tymoshenko's detention for the entire balance of her trial and after the trial had concluded until sentencing was without justification and inappropriately deprived her of her liberty;

When viewing all of these findings in their totality, most importantly the denial of adequate time to prepare a defense, the denial of the ability to call material witnesses and admit critical evidence, and the examination of witnesses without representation of counsel, it is clear the overturning of her conviction is warranted.

We note the Report was commissioned by the Ministry of Justice of the Government of Ukraine and call upon the Ukrainian Ministry and the Yanukovych Administration to immediately release Yulia Tymoshenko, release all details surrounding the payment for the Report and restore the rule of law to Ukraine.

Best regards,

Jim Slattery
