Footnote: "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Mr. Mikheil Machavariani
Executive Secretary
United National Movement
45a, Kakheti Highway 0198
Tbilisi, Georgia

March 19, 2014

Dear Mr. Machavariani:

I look forward to working the UNM to communicate key priorities and interests in the United States.

This letter will serve as the formal agreement under which Fianna Strategies LLC (FS) will represent the United National Movement of Georgia (UNM) as a government relations and communications consultant in the United States.

This representation will include:

- providing advisory services, as required, to the UNM
- assisting the UNM in building partnerships and relationships with relevant US audiences and constituencies, including the administration, the US Congress, think tanks, and other organizations, as well as the media
- supporting UNM visits to the United States
- communicating the positions of the UNM, including to: ensure strong US support for Georgia's democracy, security, sovereignty, and territorial integrity; encourage US support for Georgian "membership perspective" from the EU, as well as enhanced bilateral relations with the United States; build US leadership for Georgia's full NATO integration, including via a Membership Action Plan (MAP); and provide updates and details on domestic Georgian policies and developments

The terms and conditions of this agreement are below.

1. FS shall coordinate with the leadership of the UNM to plan UNM outreach on a regular basis. FS will proactively communicate US policy developments of interest to the UNM.
2. For all government relations and communications services to be rendered under this agreement, the UNM shall pay FS, over the 6-month term of this agreement, covering the period of April 1, 2014 through September 30, 2014, the net amount of $42000 (USD), a non-refundable fee excluding all Georgian taxes. Payment of this fee will be made in two installments: $21000 (USD) will be paid upon the signing of this agreement; $21000 (USD) shall be paid after three months.

3. Any reasonable expenses to support activities required by the client in the United States will be reimbursed separately by the UNM upon the submission of receipts; FS will seek approval in advance for any such expenses. Payment terms will be 100% net thirty (30) days on all invoiced amounts.
4. FS shall treat information relating to the activities of the UNM in these matters as private and confidential and shall not disclose such information to any other party unless asked to do so by the UNM, except as required by United States law and regulation (including Title 22, Chapter 11 of the United States Code pertaining to the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as well as Lobbying Disclosure Act requirements). This covenant shall survive the termination of this Agreement.
5. FS shall: avoid any and all behavior which might damage the UNM's reputation or which may in any way adversely affect its interests, reputation, or assets; hold all necessary negotiations and manage all arrangements necessary for performing assigned tasks; and inform the UNM of any circumstances which may constrain FS from immediately launching, executing, or completing tasks.
6. In connection with the services or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, FS and the UNM, each represent and warrant that they shall at all relevant times comply and cause their respective officers, employees, representatives, consultants, affiliates and subcontractors (collectively, such party's "Group") to be in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, directives, ordinances, order or statute (collectively the "Laws"), including but not limited to such Laws dealing with improper or illegal payments, gifts, or gratuities to public officials or private individuals for the purpose of influencing their decisions, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 as amended and revised, all applicable anti-bribery Laws of the Government of Georgia, any applicable anti-bribery Laws of other countries, the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and the sanctions regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department Office of Foreign Assets Control. Further, FS and AU each represent and warrant that it has not acted, will not act, and has not and will not cause, directly or indirectly, any other third party to act, in any manner that would cause FS and the UNM or any of their Group, to violate the Laws. Each party agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other party and it's affiliates' respective directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, against demands, liabilities, fines, penalties, losses, and damages (including costs, investigation and litigation expenses and counsel fees incurred in connection therewith) arising out of or related to it's obligations under this Article.
7. Both parties to this Agreement agree that the parties and their attorneys shall not communicate with anyone associated with any media or publication entities concerning the terms of this Agreement. This confidentiality provision is a material term of this Agreement, and its violation shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

8. During the life of this agreement and for one year after the termination of this agreement, FS agrees not to represent or work for any party or association in conflict with the UNM without the prior written consent of the UNM.
9. FS shall provide quarterly report for its activities.
10. Notwithstanding the terms of this Agreement, either party may terminate this Agreement upon 30 days written notice to the other, with no further obligation other than to pay FS such fees and expenses, including costs which may be owed by FS for the services of subcontractors or consultants retained for work relating to the UNM, which would have accrued up to and through the 30-day notice period. Should this Agreement terminate prior to its natural expiration, and fees paid to FS by the UNM that exceed the pro-rata share of earned fees apportioned on a daily basis up to the date of termination shall be refunded by FS to the UNM. This Agreement shall be governed, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America excluding its conflicts of laws principles.
11. The parties may renew this agreement for an additional time period as further agreed in writing.

If the above reflects the understanding reached by FS and the UNM, please sign below. I look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Molly K. McKew
Fianna Strategies
