Footnote: "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Letter of Engagement

The Embassy of Japan in the United States (representative: Takuya Sasayama), (hereafter referred to as A), acting on behalf of the Government of Japan and in accordance with the authority vested in him and Mercury Public Affairs LLC (representative: Morris L. Reid), (hereafter referred to as B), have agreed as follows with respect to public relations program with emphasis on international trade and investment:

Article 1

A requests B to act as a PR consultant for A as per the attached Outline of PR Consultancy Service, and B agrees to undertake said consultancy.

Article 2

B is an independent contractor of A, and any commitments made between B and any other person(s) shall not bind A, except whenever A has given B special authority to do so.

Article 3

- (1) At the request of A, B shall make a report of its activities.
- (2) The aforementioned report shall include all activities provided for in Article 1.

Article 4

The period of this letter shall be July 1st, 2016 to December 31st, 2016.

Article 5

The fee for the entire service will be $ 80,000 USD in total. A shall pay B fees bimonthly, with the first payment of $26,666.00 USD due on or before September 1, 2016, and a like payment for fees of $26,667.00 continuing every other month thereafter, based upon an invoice to be submitted by B to A beforehand. In case of delay in payment, A shall notify B in advance and implement the payment as soon as possible. B will submit status reports in advance of each invoice detailing events B organizes and those in the planning stage.

Article 6

B must not disclose to a third party the contents of services stipulated by A under this letter or any confidential information learned in performing the services pursuant to this letter.

Article 7

B must act in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations set forth by the Government of the United States, when pursuing its activities in accordance with this letter.

Article 8

If A reasonably deems B to have breached this letter, A may refuse to pay a part or the full amount of the contract value, or may seek return of any unearned payment.

Article 9

No security deposit shall be required.

Article 10

Any matters arising out of or in connection with this letter shall be resolved through consultations between A and B.

Article 11

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, either party may cancel this contract by issuing notification 30 days in advance. In case B wishes to cancel the contract, A will stop paying the fee for service from the next month following the date of the cancellation.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused this letter to be executed in duplicate originals, one original to be retained by each party.

Executed this 60th day of July, 2016.

Signed:

Takuya Sasayama (A)

Mercury Public Affairs LLC (B)

Outline of Public Relation (PR) Program

B will serve A in promoting atmosphere which could contribute to international trade and investment, particularly between Japan and the United States, through the following activities.

- This program will last for six months in one target state, multiple cities.
- This program aims to conduct outreach activities to local elected officials and their staffers, including holding an event involving them.
- This program also aims to urge local opinion leaders and media to generate support for international trade and investment and Japan-U.S. economic relations, eventually leading to creating more support from local elected officials.
- This program also includes follow-up social media activities, especially after outreach activities, to distribute and maximize the effects of the program outcomes.

B will provide, upon request from A, necessary information and advice in implementing and following up the program.
