

“The report refers to a check apparently undertaken three years ago and we are not aware that any such check was made. NSO has never been contacted and therefore believes the reporting is simply wrong.

“Nevertheless, we requested this week for an immediate investigation to be conducted by the United Nations and the US authorities, which will unequivocally disclose the truth regarding all stories that were published and who is responsible for spreading false and malicious rumors.

“Despite all attempts to discredit the company, NSO will continue to act according to its vision, and will continue to save human life in Israel and around the world, using Israeli technology designed to ensure a better and safer world”
