Date: Monday, February, 3rd, 2020 @ 1pm.

About: Miami, Florida and Antalya, Turkey became Sister Cities in 2016 - a relationship that allows two cities to share their experiences in addressing urban challenges, including improving public transport, waste and water management, industrialization, housing, and more. Sister Cities also work together and develop peer-to-peer relations among their residents, allowing a flow of ideas and culture through events and tourism that bring two seemingly different cities closer together.

"Resemblance by Chance, Sisters by Choice" is an exhibition that will host oil paintings by Antalya resident and artist Terrance M.P. Duggan, where his works will showcase and highlight the commonalities of these two beautiful cities.

This event is free and open to the public and is organized by Miami Dade College International Student Services and the Consulate General of the Republic of Turkey in Miami.

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of The Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.
