Subject: Clarification: Protests in Haiti as political standoff continues
Importance: High

Dear Caitlin,

I'm reaching out as my colleague Djenny is currently out of office until Thursday.

We noted in your recent article you said the CSPJ as an institution has sided with the opposition:

"The Superior Council of Judicial Power (CSPJ) -- a powerful body that appoints, fires and disciplines judges -- have sided with the opposition in calling for Moise to step down. So have some US lawmakers."

We'd ask that this be clarified to highlight that the body itself didn't side with the opposition, but individual judges on the body did.

Kind regards,
Miran
