

TURKEY AND NEBRASKA: A JOB CREATING ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP

Turkey is now the biggest exporter to Nebraska in the entire MENA region.

Nebraska is home to around 1,000 Turkish Americans; many are small business owners.

Nebraska's imports from Turkey increased by 243% between 2017 and 2020.

Turkey is also the third biggest importer of goods from Nebraska in the MENA region.

Nebraska's biggest exports to Turkey are chemical products, pulses, and machinery.

Turkey's imports from Nebraska increased by 73% between 2017 and 2020.

Nebraska Imports from Turkey	(approximate)	Nebraska Exports to Turkey	(approximate)
2017	$7,000,000	2017	$11,000,000
2020	$24,000,000	2020	$19,000,000
Growth	243%	Growth	73%

BERKSHIRE HATHAWAY
HomeServices

Berkshire Hathaway: Omaha

The eighth-largest company in the world and the biggest company to come out of Nebraska, Berkshire Hathaway is a multinational conglomerate holding company.

In Turkey, the company has a subsidiary, Iscar Turkey, which produces metal cutting tools and also invests in firms with a strong presence in Turkey, such as Abbvie, Johnson & Johnson, and Mondelez International.

LEO A DALY

Leo A Daly: Omaha

Leo A Daly is an architecture firm headquartered in Omaha that combines planning, architecture, engineering and interiors. The company has 826 employees, around 750 of which are in Nebraska.

The company has had a number of projects in Turkey in recent years – from designing a world-class resort in Alacati to innovative healthcare design developments.

Ag Processing Inc: Omaha

Based in Omaha, Ag Processing Inc is a leading agribusiness engaged in procuring, processing, marketing, and transporting of oilseeds, grains, and related products. The company has more than 1,000 affiliated employees, around 400 of which are in Nebraska.

Turkey is one of Ag Processing Inc's largest foreign markets.

TENASKA

Tenaska: Omaha

Tenaska Biofuels LLC generates renewable energy and provides soybeans and corn to generate electricity for tolling services.

Turkey is the company's largest foreign market.