

Attributable to an "NSO Spokesperson":

"NSO is not related to the list published by Forbidden Stories, it is not a NSO list, and it never was – stating that it is, is fabricated information. It is not a list of targets or potential targets of NSO's customers, and your repeated reliance on this list and association of the people on this list as potential surveillance targets is false and misleading.

"NSO does not have access to the data of its customers, yet they are obligated to provide us with such information under investigations.

"From a sensational headline screaming "50,000 phone numbers" we are left with 37, that we are still seeking any proof of their relation to NSO.

"If and when NSO will receive a credible proof of misuse of its technologies, it will conduct a thorough investigation, as it always had and always will.

"NSO products are saving lives and helping governments fight crime and terror."
