“The Government of Ethiopia is actively looking into these allegations to establish a clear understanding of the facts. In light of several inconsistencies in the allegations, we are working with the relevant authorities to gather evidence and will prosecute any individuals found to have committed crimes to the fullest extent of the law. The government is keen to reiterate our desire to ensure a peaceful resolution to the conflict in Tigray and is actively working to secure a ceasefire.” A

On Background

- The Setit River flows well beyond Humera, so one cannot conclude that the bodies originated from there as opposed to another location upstream without additional evidence.
- A number of similar allegations have been made by questionable sources. We have evidence that some TPLF fighters have carried UN Refugee ID cards and have spoken to reporters without identifying themselves as fighters.
