This request and agreement was separate from and in addition to our representation of the ICB in connection with litigation related to release of Guantanamo Detainees. As required by the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct, this letter sets forth the terms of our new and separate agreement to provide government relations services.

1. We agree to provide, on an as needed basis and in consultation with you, assistance with meetings and the provision of information to representatives of the Executive and Legislative branches of the US government on behalf of ICB. It is understood and expected that this work will be subject to registration and reporting under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, 22 U.S.C. § 611, et. seq. ("FARA").
2. Pursuant to our previous discussions and oral agreement, this Firm submitted its FARA registration on August 23, 2013. ICB confirms its consent to this Firm's registration under FARA and authorize this Firm to provide any and all disclosures required by FARA.

periodically review our rates to take account of increasing costs and inflation and, when appropriate, adopt increases generally applicable to all clients. We will inform you of any such rate adjustments and seek your confirmation of such adjustments.

4. In addition to the payment of fees, you will also reimburse us for out-of-pocket disbursements incurred in the representation, such as express delivery/messenger service, travel, secretarial overtime (when required) and similar expenses. We shall not incur any major or unusual expense without your prior authorization. When out-of-pocket disbursements are significant, for example, fees for outside consultants and expert witnesses, we may ask you to pay the bills directly and you agree to do so promptly.
5. In the usual course our statements for fees and disbursements will be rendered monthly. We are aware that payment of fees and disbursements is conditioned upon receipt of funds by ICB.
6. You may, of course, terminate our representation at any time, for any reason. Our firm may terminate its representation of you for breach of the terms contained herein or otherwise in accordance with the applicable Rules of Professional Conduct and Rules of Court.
7. If you have any questions about the foregoing terms, please let us know. Otherwise, if this letter correctly sets forth the terms of our engagement, we ask you to indicate by signing and dating it in the appropriate spaces below and returning the original to us.

We thank you for the opportunity to be of assistance and look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,
