Taiwan Celebrates National Day

Reflecting on President Tsai's Taiwan National Day Remarks: a significant day for Taiwan and its future

- Speech Highlights: "Today, the Republic of China (Taiwan) has become the prevailing consensus of our 23 million people. This consensus is a convergence of the historical sentiments of different groups and the knowledge of the joys and hardships we have shared over the past 74 years. It also shows that we are willing to come together and create the largest common denominator in order to foster unity, safeguard our country, and defend our free and democratic way of life."

Yushan Forum 2023

- President Tsai Speech Highlights: "The New Southbound Policy lies at the core of our Indo-Pacific strategy. Through this, we are sending a message to the world that in the face of the mounting threats of authoritarianism and climate change, as well as a global restructuring of supply chains, Taiwan is a secure and reliable partner. Through testing times, Taiwan has stood firm, and we will continue to contribute to peace and prosperity around the world."
