President Tsai meets AIT Chairperson Laura Rosenberger

2024/4/1

President Tsai's remarks are as follows:

It is a pleasure to meet with Chairperson Rosenberger once again. This is your fifth visit to Taiwan since taking office just over a year ago. I want to thank you for taking concrete action to demonstrate your passion and eagerness to deepen Taiwan-US relations.

Last year, when you visited the Presidential Office for the first time as AIT chairperson, you mentioned how Taiwan and the US were working together to expand and strengthen our partnership through various channels and said that you looked forward to this continuing.

In the past year, we signed the first agreement under the Taiwan-US Initiative for 21st-Century Trade, setting a new milestone for bilateral trade relations. And in the past two months, Taiwan and the US signed an MOU on international development cooperation. The US Further Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2024 has also been signed into law. These developments are helping facilitate a comprehensive partnership between Taiwan and the US. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the US government and Congress for their efforts to strengthen Taiwan-US security cooperation.

This year marks the 45th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act. Thanks to bipartisan support in the US, our partnership has not only stood the test of time but also grown even stronger. As we face a rapidly changing global landscape, Taiwan will continue to work with the US and other democracies to maintain regional peace and stability and advance prosperity and development around the world.

We look forward to Taiwan-US collaboration continuing to deepen in such areas as trade and the economy, supply chain security, and cybersecurity. I believe that with Chairperson Rosenberger's assistance, Taiwan-US relations will grow even more fruitful as we continue to work together.
