

THE PARTNERSHIP

U.S.–Nigeria Cooperation for Security, Stability, and Shared Prosperity

A Critical Moment for Bilateral Engagement

The stakes have never been higher for Nigeria and the United States to deepen their strategic relationship, not only for the protection of Christians and all innocent Nigerian civilians, but also for the future of U.S. relations with Africa's largest country, largest democracy, and strongest economy. Security and stability on the continent of Africa and around the globe hang in the balance.

A Shared Commitment to Security and Stability
