Exhibit B to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Dear Ambassador Sasae:

Thank you for selecting The Daschle Group to represent The Embassy of Japan ("the Client") and provide you with strategic advice on public policy issues. It will be our pleasure to work with you. The purpose of this letter is to set forth certain information regarding the scope of work, our fees, billing, and terms.

Scope of Work

Under the terms of this agreement, The Daschle Group shall provide public policy consulting and other services as requested by the Client during the term hereof, including, but not limited to:

- strategic advice on public policy issues impacting the Client's U.S. and international priorities;
- development of regulatory, legislative, and other public policy-related strategies and counsel and advice with respect to implementation of the strategies; and
- other strategic consultative services as necessary that will advance Client's public policy goals.

In order to ensure ongoing and contemporaneous analysis of priority issues, The Daschle Group will participate in regularly scheduled conference calls, meetings, and unscheduled calls as necessary. You should, of course, feel free to communicate with us on any issue or matter that you feel deserves attention and we will endeavor to respond promptly.

Engagement Terms

I will be your principal contact. Additional attorneys and public policy advisors, in addition to their support staff and researchers, may work on this matter, as needed.

In consideration of our services, the Client agrees to pay The Daschle Group a monthly retainer of $25,000 (twenty-five thousand dollars). We will submit statements for services rendered for payment on a monthly basis. In addition, our billing statements will include charges and disbursements incurred by us in the course of providing services. Payment is due upon receipt.

The term of this engagement will begin on May 1, 2016 and conclude on March 31, 2017, renewable by written agreement between both parties. This engagement may be terminated by
