Exhibit B to Registration Statement*Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE LOBBYING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

This agreement summarizes the terms by which Minister and Head of Chancery of the Embassy of Japan (Embassy), Takuya Sasayama, on behalf of the Embassy, engages Alignment Government Strategies (AGS), of 601 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, South Building, Suite 430, Washington, DC 20004 for lobbying and consulting services in connection with legislation and federal government policy matters of possible interest to the Embassy of Japan (this matter).

Period of engagement: The Embassy's engagement of AGS in this matter shall be deemed to have begun on April 1, 2018, and shall terminate on March 31, 2019, renewable by written agreement between the Embassy and AGS. During this period, or at any time thereafter, either the Embassy or AGS may terminate this agreement upon 30 days' written notice.

Fees: The Embassy agrees to pay AGS $16,000 per month for all services performed pursuant to this agreement. Upon prior notice to, and approval by, the Embassy, extraordinary expenditures undertaken by AGS in connection with its services pursuant to this agreement will be reimbursed by the Embassy. AGS will bill the Embassy on a monthly basis, and the Embassy agrees to pay such bills within thirty days of their receipt.

In the event that either the Embassy or AGS concludes that the volume of work involved has changed significantly, and that such change is likely to endure for several months, it may recommend that the fee amount be reconsidered to reflect such change in volume. Under such circumstances, the party receiving such a request will consider it in good faith and determine whether a change is warranted.

Reports on Activities: AGS agrees to provide the Embassy with a substantive, confidential monthly report in writing on specific activities it conducts pursuant to this agreement.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE LOBBYING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

This agreement summarizes the terms by which Minister and Head of Chancery of the Embassy of Japan (Embassy), Takuya Sasayama, on behalf of the Embassy, engages Hecht, Latham, Spencer & Associates, Inc. (HLSA), of 499 South Capitol Street, SW, Washington, DC 20003, for lobbying and consulting services in connection with legislation and federal government policy matters of possible interest to the Embassy of Japan (this matter):

- Period of engagement. The Embassy's engagement of HLSA in this matter shall be deemed to have begun on April 2, 2018, and shall terminate on March 29, 2019, renewable by written agreement between the Embassy and HLSA. During this period, or at any time thereafter, either the Embassy or HLSA may terminate this engagement upon 30 days' written notice.
- Fees. The Embassy agrees to pay HLSA $16,000 per month for all services performed pursuant to this agreement. Upon prior notice to, and approval by, the Embassy, extraordinary expenditures undertaken by HLSA in connection with its services pursuant to this agreement will be reimbursed by the Embassy. HLSA will bill the Embassy on a monthly basis, and the Embassy agrees to pay such bills within thirty days of their receipt. In the event that either the Embassy or HLSA concludes that the volume of the work involved has changed significantly, and that such change is likely to endure for several months, it may recommend that the fee amount be reconsidered to reflect such change in volume. Under such circumstances, the party receiving such a request will consider it in good faith and determine whether a change is warranted.
- Reports on Activities. HLSA agrees to provide the Embassy with a substantive, confidential monthly report, in writing or orally, on the specific activities it conducts pursuant to this agreement.
