Spring is in the air

Can you feel it? Springtime in Denmark is just around the corner – and we are so ready for it. While the sun still plays the occasional round of peek-a-boo, the days are long, the flowers are popping, and

Easter in Denmark

When Easter arrives, spring has fully made its entrance here. Påske, as we call it, brings not only great food and festivities, but weird and wonderful traditions too. One of our favourite Easter traditions is a crafty one: the so-called gækkebreve (yeah, that one's a bit of a tongue twister) are secret letters with many chocolate eggs at stake.

So, grab your scissors and some paper, and let's get cracking!
