Iraq and the United States have an enduring strategic partnership on counterterrorism, and Iraq is looking to build on other areas of mutual interest from education to technology to the protection of the environment.

Notably, the Iraqi government is currently in transition. Mohammed al-Halbousi was re-elected as Speaker of the Council of Representatives, and while finalizing the formation of the government is likely to take more time, one should not forget that this is Iraq's 6th transition to a democratically elected government since the fall of Saddam Hussein's regime, as mandated by the Constitution.

THE LIVINGSTON GROUP PROVIDES REPRESENTATION FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF IRAQ. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION IS AVAILABLE AT THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WASHINGTON, DC.
